

SOCIETY

By Bertha Hempstead

Washburn college people and society and fraternity circles, are especially interested in the events scheduled for the Alpha Phi initiation this week. The Beta sorority girls will become Alpha Phis at the installation service Friday afternoon at the chapter house. Friday evening a banquet will be given at the National hotel, and Saturday afternoon there will be a tea at the sorority house. Today, Miss Gertrude Kitchell and Miss Bertha Kitchell gave a luncheon for the out-of-town Alpha Phi women who are in Topeka for the installation. A dinner party will be given tonight for the visitors at the home of Miss Kathryn Albright.

Those who will come from other towns to attend are: Mrs. P. M. Murphy, Miss Alice Wright, Mrs. Max Morehouse, Miss Mary Leitch, Miss Eleanor Halley, Miss Lathrop, Miss Dorothy Thompson, Mrs. F. G. Turnbull all of Kansas City; Mrs. Clyde Hastings, Mrs. Cora Pulkner, nee Lacy, all of Atchison; Miss Florence Knox of Mound City, Miss Ruth Thompson of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Myra Lackland of Atchison.

Mrs. Hastings, Miss Knox, Miss Leitch and Miss Gertrude Kitchell will conduct the initiation.

The following item, under the caption of "The Golden Wedding Morning," was published in a recent number of a Los Angeles, Cal., paper:

"Last Wednesday evening at the Briggs apartments, beautifully decorated with goldenrod and yellow dahlias, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Mulvane celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in the presence of relatives and friends.

A son, Austin Brown Mulvane of San Bernardino, and his four beautiful, curly-haired daughters were present, also a daughter, Mrs. Richmond W. Torrey and Mr. Torrey of Los Angeles. Another daughter, Mrs. William J. Johnson, living in Enterprise, Kan., could not be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulvane were married in Newcomerstown, Ohio, about one year after Mr. Mulvane's return home after serving four years in the Eightieth Ohio regiment during the Civil war. Mr. and Mrs. Mulvane lived many years in Topeka, Kan., and have spent the past eight years in Los Angeles. Their friends wish for them many years of joy.

Mr. David A. Mulvane is a brother of Mr. John Mulvane and Mr. John Mulvane, and an uncle of Mr. David W. Mulvane, of this city.

Washburn college has added to its teaching force this year a number of new instructors in the department of fine arts, which continues under the direction of David George Whitcomb. The music faculty includes some foreign musicians, some from the east, and one local teacher.

The voice department will be in charge of Miss Clara Konopasek, who comes from Grinnell, Iowa, where she has had charge of the vocal department since 1907. She received the greater part of her musical education in Vienna, Budapest and Leipzig.

The violin department will be in charge of Scipione Guidi, who is an Italian concert performer. He is in his early thirties, and has been engaged in public concert work since he was 11 years old. He received his musical education in Europe.

Prof. Willoughby Boughton, of the piano department, will be assisted by Mr. Stanley Levey, of New York, and by Miss Ethel Grant, of Topeka. Mr. Levey has had eight years of training in Europe, chiefly in Berlin, and he came to this country on account of the war. Miss Grant is a former Washburn student, who has been a recent student in the New England conservatory, at Boston.

Mr. Hugh C. Dickerson, of Chicago, will be an assistant in Miss Konopasek's department. He studied in Chicago the past five years.

A new department in the school is the two-year course in public school music, which will be conducted by Miss Minerva Hall, who comes to Topeka from the Illinois Normal institute. This public school music department is thought to be an addition of value to the fine arts course, and is regarded as affording a training of importance.

The new members of the faculty will be in the receiving line at the faculty reception Friday night in Carnegie hall. Mr. and Mrs. George Stone will also be in the receiving line. Mr. Stone has been engaged to teach painting at Washburn this year.

Miss Helen Louise Crosby was hostess at a dinner party at her home for Mr. Jack Richards of Kansas City. Other guests were Miss Leona Curtis, who has returned from Washington, D. C., Mr. Felix La Force of Kansas City, Miss Helen Yoder, formerly of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin

TODAY'S DAINTEST DISH

'COOKERY IS BECOME A NOBLE SCIENCE'

Creamed Codfish and Spaghetti

By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

Hot heavy meals should be avoided. Light, appetizing dishes must be prepared to tempt faded appetites. Dishes should be chosen which take little cooking, and so avoid overheating the house. Creamed codfish is easily prepared and is an improvement on the usual codfish dish.

Warm some button mushrooms (canned) in melted butter, prepare some spaghetti in the ordinary way.

And season it well with salt and pepper. Remove the skin and bone from an equal amount of cooked codfish (boneless), or prepared salt codfish can be substituted, and divide into flakes. Take little ramshorn dishes and rub them round with garlic, spread a thick layer of codfish and a layer of spaghetti, and pour sauce over the top. Repeat until the dish is full, reserving enough sauce to cover the last layer of spaghetti.

NO SACK SCRAP

Washburn Freshmen Abandon Old Practice.

Faculty Thinks Harmless Sport Is "Too Rough."

Washburn's annual "sack scrap," the outlet whereby "freshies" and "sophes" vent their traditional hatred upon each other, is to be discarded. Washburn faculty agree that it is too rough, but that is not the objection to its being dropped. The student governing body. They say that the annual "crash" is too tame— from a spectator's standpoint. Consequently a student committee, made up of upper classmen who are no longer participants in the yearly "crash," is in correspondence with leading schools in all parts of the country in an endeavor to find a contest that will combine all the thrills of a hot, heated championship, an old-style football game, and a bull-fight.

The "sack scrap" is fought out on the football field under rules as simple. At a signal the opposing classes rush for five large sacks, weighing fifty pounds per sack, which are in the middle of the field. The object of each side is to secure the sacks and plant them behind their own goal posts. One must first get the signal and the sacks are covered with sprawling contestants like a swarm of bees. The progress of the sack is very slow, and the whole thing is "tame," according to those on the sidelines.

The sack scrap is a comparatively new innovation at Washburn, taking the place of the old class scrap, the cane rushes, the "rope ties," which were ruled too destructive to Washburn limbs and property, although intensely interesting as a spectacle.

A plan receiving favorable consideration now is "a medicine ball scrap," in which a huge inflated ball, six feet in diameter, is used.

The committee is expected to make a recommendation by the end of the week, and the annual tangle will be pulled off the latter part of the week.

Mrs. E. G. Foster has returned from Newport, Pa., where she visited her father, who is recovering from a serious illness. On her return she stopped in Columbus, Ohio, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Broderick, formerly Miss Miriam Foster.

BARBERS ARE LOSERS

New 35 Cent Hair Cut Eliminates Shampoo Revenues.

Topeka business men threatened to quit hair cutting, when the washers at the barber shops—today unless the barbers change their new "35 cent hair cuts" back to the "two bit kind." And the barbers have to do it, too, one admitted confidentially.

"A man came in my shop early this morning and got a haircut. Formerly he always got a shampoo. This time he said he guessed he'd wash his head at home."

The barber was the story one barber told today. Others said practically the same thing. Just as many, according to the barbers, are getting hair cuts as before the price was boosted, but they have gone back to home remedies for dandruff.

"We make 50 cents per head under the old way, while we only get 35 now," one barber complained.

The wise barbers say that a score of business men are causing all the trouble and that it's just a joke. They all agree that if it is a joke, it's a poor one.

"ALLAH," THAT'S ALL

County Officials Have Difficulty in Mohammedan Creed.

If you had to administer an oath to one of the Mohammedan faith, what would you do?

Albert Abdallah, whose God is Allah, is in the county jail charged with robbing a countryman, Mohamet Mustafa, of $200. He was arraigned in the court of Topeka and one of the preliminaries is the giving of the oath. There is a reference to God in Christian nations and Judge Hugh Fisher thought that with such a name as Abdallah, a conference was held but no agreement as to the best method of procedure was reached. Finally it dawned upon the court and attaches that Abdallah wouldn't understand their oath and they would not understand his.

Judge Fisher mumbled something calculated to sound like an oath and held up his right hand. Abdallah understood the hand movement and put up his right hand. Then he mumbled something that combined the word "Allah" and he was sworn. Abdallah is a Turk.

POLITICIANS TO BLOWS.

Resort to Fighting in Bitter Chicago Election.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—The bitter factional quarrels in both the Republican and Democratic parties flamed into the open in Wednesday's bitter primary battle in Chicago.

In the Eighteenth ward, ground of many historic battles, the first bloodshed occurred between the Dunne and Sullivan partisans. William Heller, a Sullivan follower, who was working for William Brinton for governor

NEW PHASE DRY LAW

Voting in British Columbia to Put Selling in Police's Hands.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 14.—The electors of British Columbia are voting today on the prohibition bill submitted to referendum by the provincial government. The measure prohibits the sale of liquor as a beverage after July 1, 1917. For mechanical, medicinal and sacramental purposes liquor may be purchased in limited quantities from vendors attached to the provincial police service. The government is selling beer and wine merely distributing centers and not operated for profit.

Now It's A Divorce

Suffragette Who Charged Chicago Graft, Deserted by Husband.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Page Waller Eaton, whose disclosures several months ago of alleged graft and political methods in the city hall involved Mrs. William Hale Thompson, wife of the mayor, has sued her husband, William D. Eaton, a magazine editor, for divorce.

Desertion is charged. They were married in 1907, and separated four months later.
